SUMMER PROJECTS ARTICLE BY DENNIS GODIN

With the summer upon us, so is the opportunity to get involved in some projects. We are presently looking into the opportunity to serve Evergreen Manor (where Cecil lived) once again. More information will come in a couple weeks. We also have several projects around the building that still need attention. Some of you have already expressed your willingness to help and that is awesome.

If you are willing to make yourself available, you are encouraged to talk with Abe so he can have a good idea of who can help and in what areas that would best suit their abilities. Here are some of the jobs that need attention: staining the back ramp, putting up chair rail, final coat of paint on the new booth, weed flower beds, put in new mulch, etc. Again, if you are interested in helping, talk with Abe as he plans to organize these projects, as well as others.

For your information, we are also looking into some projects which necessitate professional help. The cracks in the driveway are getting rather severe. We are looking into having them repaired with the future objective being to replace the driveway (That will cost around $30,000). We also have someone preparing a quote to fix the front hill. Finally, we have someone coming soon to finish the culvert area.

As you can see, this summer looks to be a busy one. If you have time to help in any of these areas, let Abe know. Let's work together to make this a productive summer time for our church family.
