Calling All Servants

“He who is greatest among you shall be your servant” (Matthew 23.11).

With these words, Jesus laid out the only path to a meaningful life. Greatness is the direct result of serving God by serving your fellow man. Do you want to make your life count? Do you want to do something significant with your days on earth? Then devote yourself to a life of service.

Every Christian should strive for Christ-likeness, but God set apart a select group of men who would serve as models for the church. Those men are called “deacons.” The very word “deacon” means “servant.” By definition, then, deacons are men of greatness. Greatness is not about perfection but rather contribution. It is making a positive impact on the lives of others. It is denying yourself, taking up your cross, and following Christ by caring for His church.

Deacons are God's champions, along with those who serve as ministry leaders. The church depends on their behind-the-scenes work to sustain the life of the congregation. Elders count on them to faithfully execute their duties so they can devote themselves to shepherding the flock. Bottom line

Where deacons & ministry leaders excel, churches grow.

The key to building a great church is equipping great deacons and ministry leaders. Knowing this, your elders have chosen to invest in training men and women to shine as servant-leaders. Saturday will be filled with biblical insight into leadership, you will be informed, uplifted, and equipped to live a life of spiritual greatness. Sign up today for the Dynamic Deacons Seminar and don't forget to invite a relative or friend to join you for this life-changing day of personal growth.
